

East African Educational Publishers (EAEP) is one of the leading publishing houses in Africa. We are home to Africa's literary giants such as Okot P'Bitek, Chinua Achebe, Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, Taban lo Liyong, David Rubadiri, among others.

We are looking for a PUBLISHING CONSULTANT to join the EAEP family, Tanzania branch (Ujuzi).

KEY RESPONSIBILITY

The Consultant will conduct market research and help/assist with the development on local (Tanzania) curriculum.

She/he will build strong relationships with key stakeholders in the education sector and authors; providing guidance during the development of books that offer innovative solutions to learners and teachers.

REQUIREMENTS

- i. Should be a Tanzanian;
- ii. Relevant Bachelor's degree in Education or related field;
- iii. Should have at least three (3) years' experience in a management position in a reputable (Publishing) company;
- iv. Proven track record of consistent high performance;
- v. The individual must demonstrate a thorough understanding and knowledge of the dynamics of the Education sector in Tanzania.

HOW TO APPLY

If you are talented, passionate, energetic and results-oriented person with the stated qualifications, email your application letter, curriculum vitae and copies of testimonials to: human.resource@eastafricanpublishers.com.

Before 15th March 2020.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.